In 2008, the Canadian Federation of Nurses Unions (CFNU) and the Saskatchewan Union of Nurses (SUN) partnered to create a scholarship for Saskatchewan students, who are the children of SUN members, wishing to further their education in the nursing profession.

As a result a scholarship with a value of $1,000 was developed to be awarded annually.

Who is eligible to apply for the scholarship?

Those who may apply must be:

- a 3rd or 4th year students enrolled in a registered nursing education program in Saskatchewan; and
- preference will be given to a child of a SUN member.

How do I apply?

1. Mail your completed the application form by the deadline to:

Executive Scholarship Committee
Saskatchewan Union of Nurses
2330 2nd Avenue
Regina, SK S4R 1A6

2. Submit a paper on the subject "Unionism in Nursing". The paper is to be typed on an 8 1/2" x 11" sheet of paper, double spaced. A minimum of 500 words is required.

Do I need to send a transcript of my marks?

While the emphasis is based on need as opposed to academic excellence, a transcript of your marks is required to verify completion of your 2nd or 3rd year of registered nursing education program in Saskatchewan.

When is the application deadline?

The application deadline is November 30th each year.

When will I be notified?

The scholarship recipient will be informed no later than December 31st of the application year.

How often can I apply?

You can apply once a year, until you no longer meet the scholarship criteria.
